Interview Conducted by Detective G. Raul

Detective Raul	Hello Quill. How are you feeling?
Quill	I am ok.
Raul	Do you know what has happened?
Quill	[Pause] ... Trix told everyone she found the captain dead.
Raul	When did you find out?
Quill	The same time as the others.
Raul	Have you been yourself lately?
Quill	What do you mean?
Raul	Well with what's happening to your company at the moment, you must know that The Atlas Project's announcement caused your companies stocks to drop. Surely you must have been affected by this news.
Quill	No [pause] ... I have been fine. The stock dropping is an internal issue.
Raul	That's very hard to believe. [pause] other members of the crew say you have been withdrawn and distant lately. If not the stock price drop, why is that?
Quill	Look, the stock price dropping is a stressful time for everyone at the company. I may have been a little on edge but that doesn't mean anything.
Raul	Mr. Ragon I am not accusing you of anything. I am only asking questions for the time being. [pause] ... So is it fair to say you have been quiet for the last couple of days then?
Quill	I suppose so.

Quill, Ragon Interview

Raul Were you aware of what you were researching on the ship?

Quill Of course. I was the one researching.

Raul Isn't it a conflict of interest?

Quill I was hired to just do the science part.

Raul Yeah, how did The Atlas Project agree to hire you?

Quill I [pause] ... I was just hired to do some research, its what I am interested in, and I wanted to do something important before I had to become a CEO.

Raul Are you interested in being CEO?

Quill What kind of question is that?

Raul Just a normal question. Do you want to be a CEO?

Quill Yeah, It's the family business. My father is stepping down.

Raul Ok. So, tell me what happened that day. The day of the 6th.

Quill I worked in the morning in the Research Facility, I wasn't feeling so good so I hung out in my cabin for a while and once I started to feel better I went back to work. Had dinner with everyone and did a bit more work after to make up for lost time in the middle of the day. And I went to bed.

Raul How long did you work in the morning?

Quill About an hour maybe, I started at half eight.

Raul Did you log into the Research system to do your work?

Quill Yeah. Of course.

Raul When did you finish?

Quill About half nine.

Raul What did you do afterwards?

Quill I went the canteen but realized I wasn't feeling well so went to my cabin.

Quill, Ragon Interview

Raul What did you do in your cabin?

Quill I slept. I wasn't feeling well.

Raul Another crew member says they heard you having a phone call. Is that true?

Quill I did.

Raul What was that call about?

Quill Just family stuff.

Raul Tell me. Every detail is important.

Quill [quick sigh] ... It was just a family update, you don't need to know what it was.

Raul Was the call with your father?

Quill My father was in the call yeah.

Raul Did he ask you to do something?

Quill No. He didn't. Do what?

Raul So you claim he didn't ask you to do anything?

Quill What would he tell me to do?

Raul What about after that? Where did you go?

Quill I went and ate some lunch at around three in the afternoon.

Raul And then?

Quill I didn't stay long, I went to the Research Facility and did some work for a bit at half three.

Raul Was anyone else there?

Quill Marcus came in to do some work.

Raul Did you speak?

Quill A bit, he seemed pissed off.

Quill, Ragon Interview

Raul Really. Why?

Quill He has been having arguments with the captain over our research. He wanted to remove a part of it to prevent The Atlas Project from having it.

Raul What did you speak about?

Quill Just the research. He told me that he wasn't happy with the captain's decision.

Raul Did you agree?

Quill I don't care.

Raul You don't? So, whatever happened, it didn't bother you?

Quill Why would it? I am about to become a CEO.

Raul Did you speak with the captain at all that day?

Quill Just before dinner yes.

Raul What did you discuss?

Quill It was only short; I was thanking him for the opportunity to come aboard the ship. He seemed worried.

Raul Worried about what and in what way?

Quill Scared, and worried about Marcus.

Raul Why do you think that is?

Quill I don't know, maybe Marcus threatened him?

Raul That is quite the accusation.

Quill They had been arguing.

Raul What about you? What was your relationship with the captain?

Quill Fine. He was a good man.

Raul Mr. Ragon, are you trained to use AI.

Quill [pause] ... yes, why is it relevant?

Quill, Ragon Interview

Raul Because the AI Log was edited. Do you know anything about that?

Quill Well Drew was teaching Marcus how to use the AI.

Raul What happened that night, Quill?

Quill After dinner, I went to bed.

Raul You didn't do anything before?

Quill I went to the Research Facility for a short time. A couple of minutes.

Raul Why was that?

Quill To check all the files had been uploaded.

Raul Did you have any interest in destroying the files?

Quill No, this was my research collected over an entire year, why would I.

Raul What about stealing it for your own use?

Quill Don't be ridiculous.

Raul Ok Mr. Ragon, thank you for your time.
